

& FRIENDS

Valentine's Day

COLORING AND ACTIVITES!

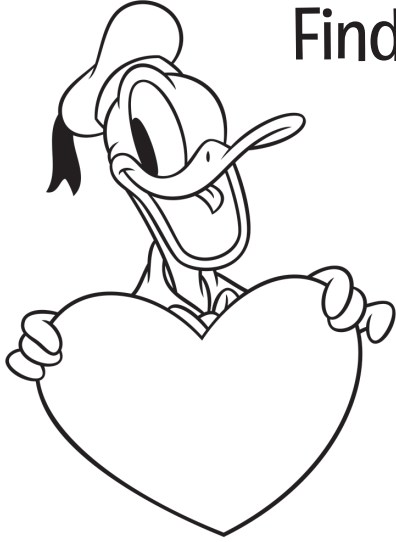

Happy Valentine's Day!

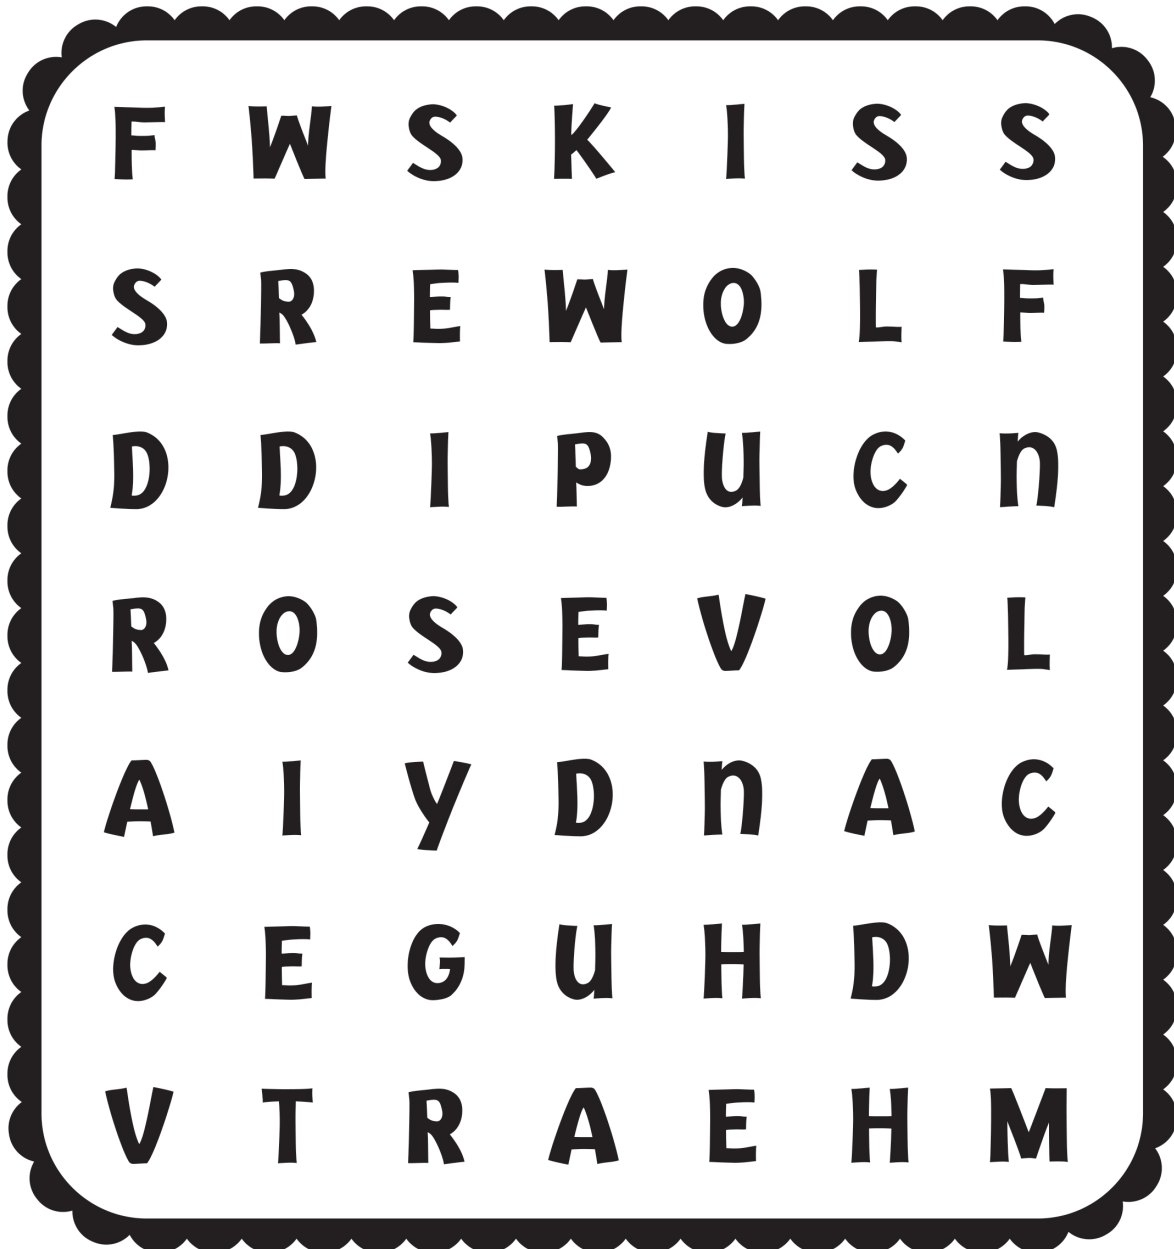

Word Search

Find all the Valentine words.

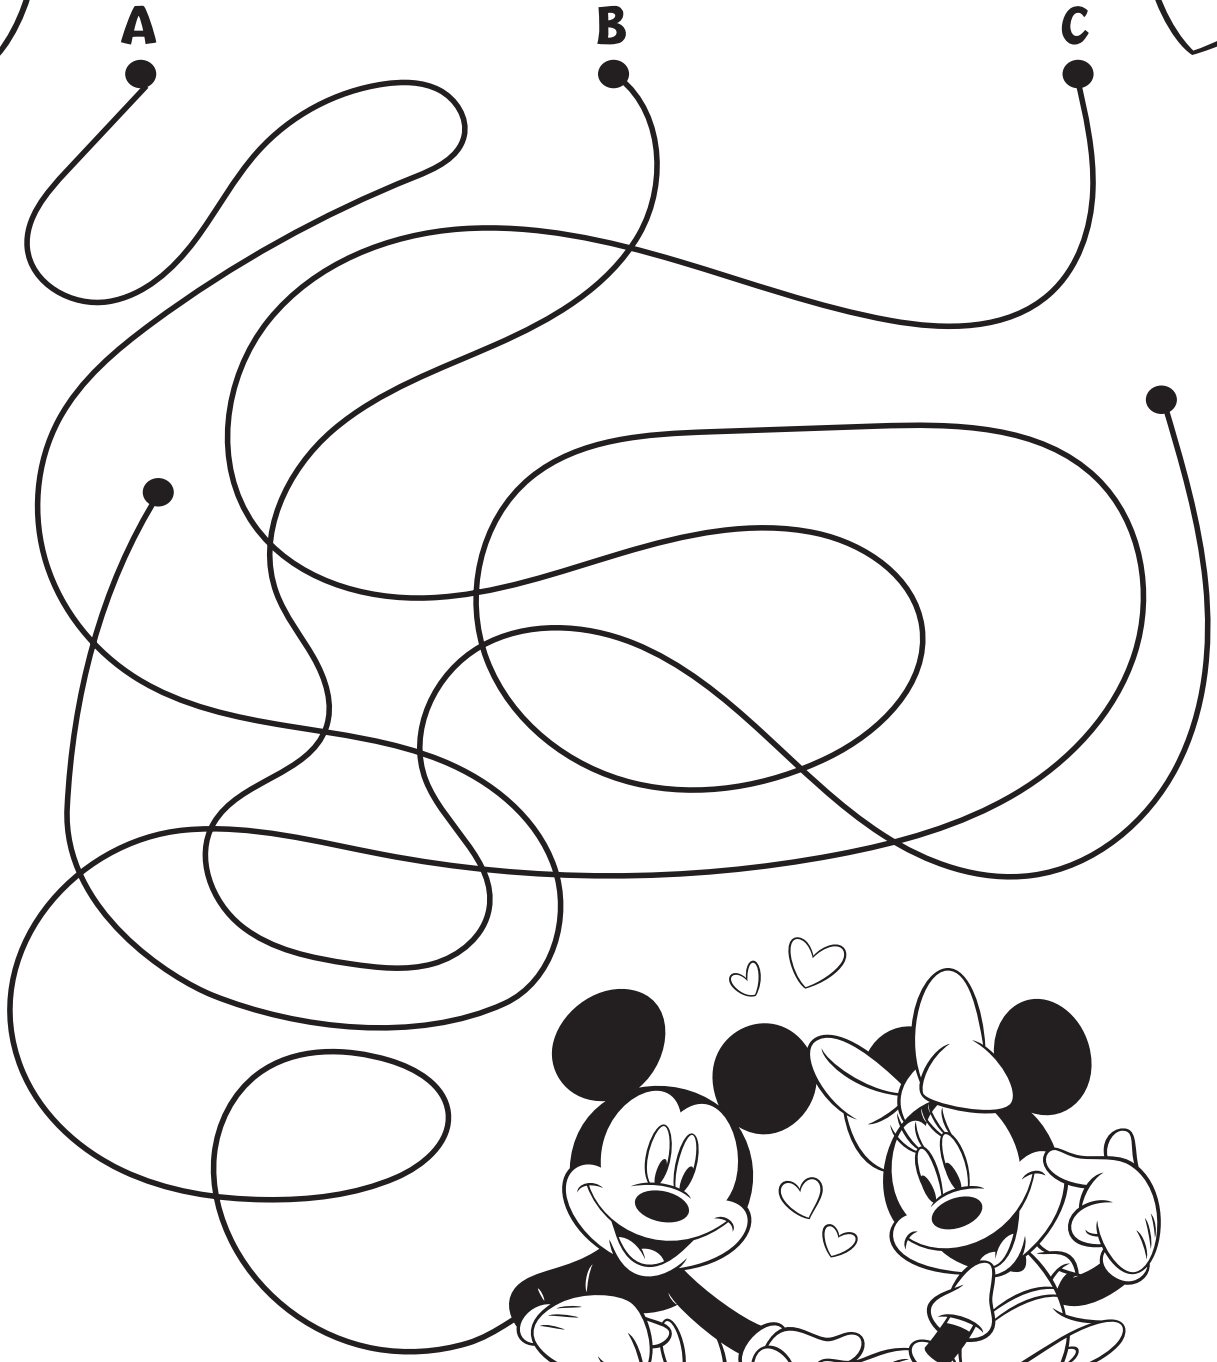

LOVE CANDY
ROSE KISS
HUG HEART
CUPID FLOWERS
CARD FRIEND

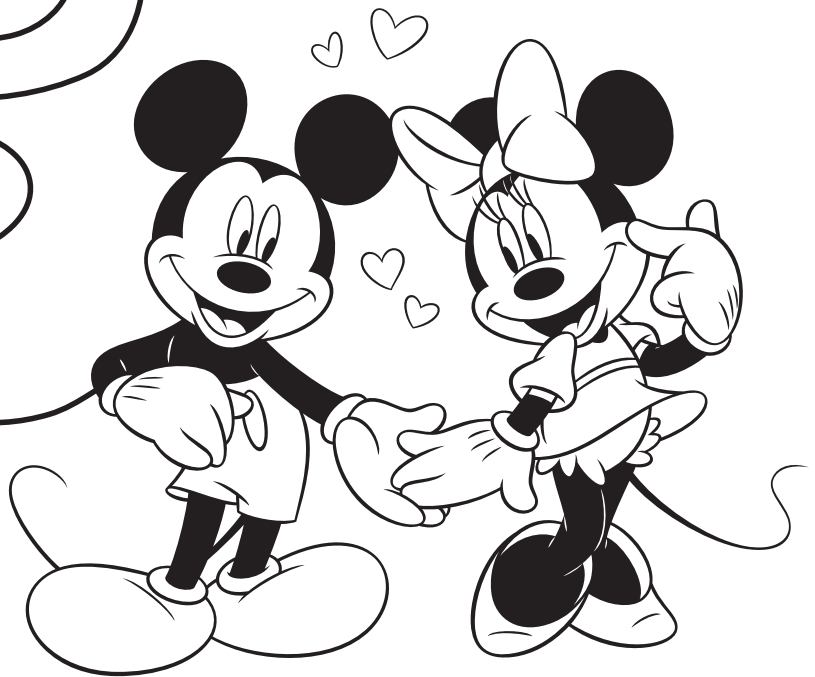

Sealed with a Kiss

Which line leads to Mickey and Minnie?

Your Answer:

Minnie's Valentine

On a chilly winter's day, Mickey answered a knock at the Clubhouse door. It was Goofy, and he had a cookie for Mickey.

"Thanks!" said Mickey. "What's the occasion?"

"It's Valentine's Day," Goofy replied.

Mickey had forgotten. He rummaged through his closet to find something for Goofy and pulled out a shoe.

"I love stinky old shoes," laughed Goofy. Then he left to deliver more cookies.

Mickey realized he didn't have a gift for Minnie, either. Just then, Donald dropped by. They decided to make cards for Minnie and Daisy.

But they needed something to draw with. "Oh, Toodles!" called Mickey. Toodles brought a box of crayons. Mickey drew a pink heart on a big piece of paper. Just to be different, Donald drew a blue square.

Then Mickey sprinkled glitter on his card.

Donald tried to add glitter but spilled it everywhere. "Aw, nuts!"

Mickey looked through the Clubhouse telescope and saw that Minnie and Daisy were in the park at the Flower Garden.

The friends hopped into the Toon Car and drove off. But the car got a flat tire! "Oh, Toodles!" shouted Mickey. Toodles had three more Mouseketools. One of them was a pump. Perfect! Mickey quickly fixed the tire.

Finally, Mickey and Donald reached the entrance to the park. But Pete said it would cost five flower petals each to get in.

Mickey called Toodles again. Luckily, one of the last two tools was a rose! The friends counted out ten petals, and Pete let them through.

It was sunset when Mickey and Donald arrived at the Flower Garden.

"Happy Valentine's Day!" said Mickey.

Minnie loved the card. She had something for Mickey, too—a bouquet of flowers!

Uh-oh! Donald forgot to bring Daisy's card. Toodles had one last tool—a ribbon! Mickey quickly tied it into a lovely bow and slipped it into Donald's hand.

Daisy was delighted. "I knew you wouldn't forget Valentine's Day!"

"Me? Forget Valentine's Day?" laughed Donald. "Never!"

Happy Valentine's Day!

Valentine's Cards

Cut them out and share with your friends.

Will you be my valentine?

© Disney

You're one of a kind!

© Disney

U R 2 CUTE!

© Disney

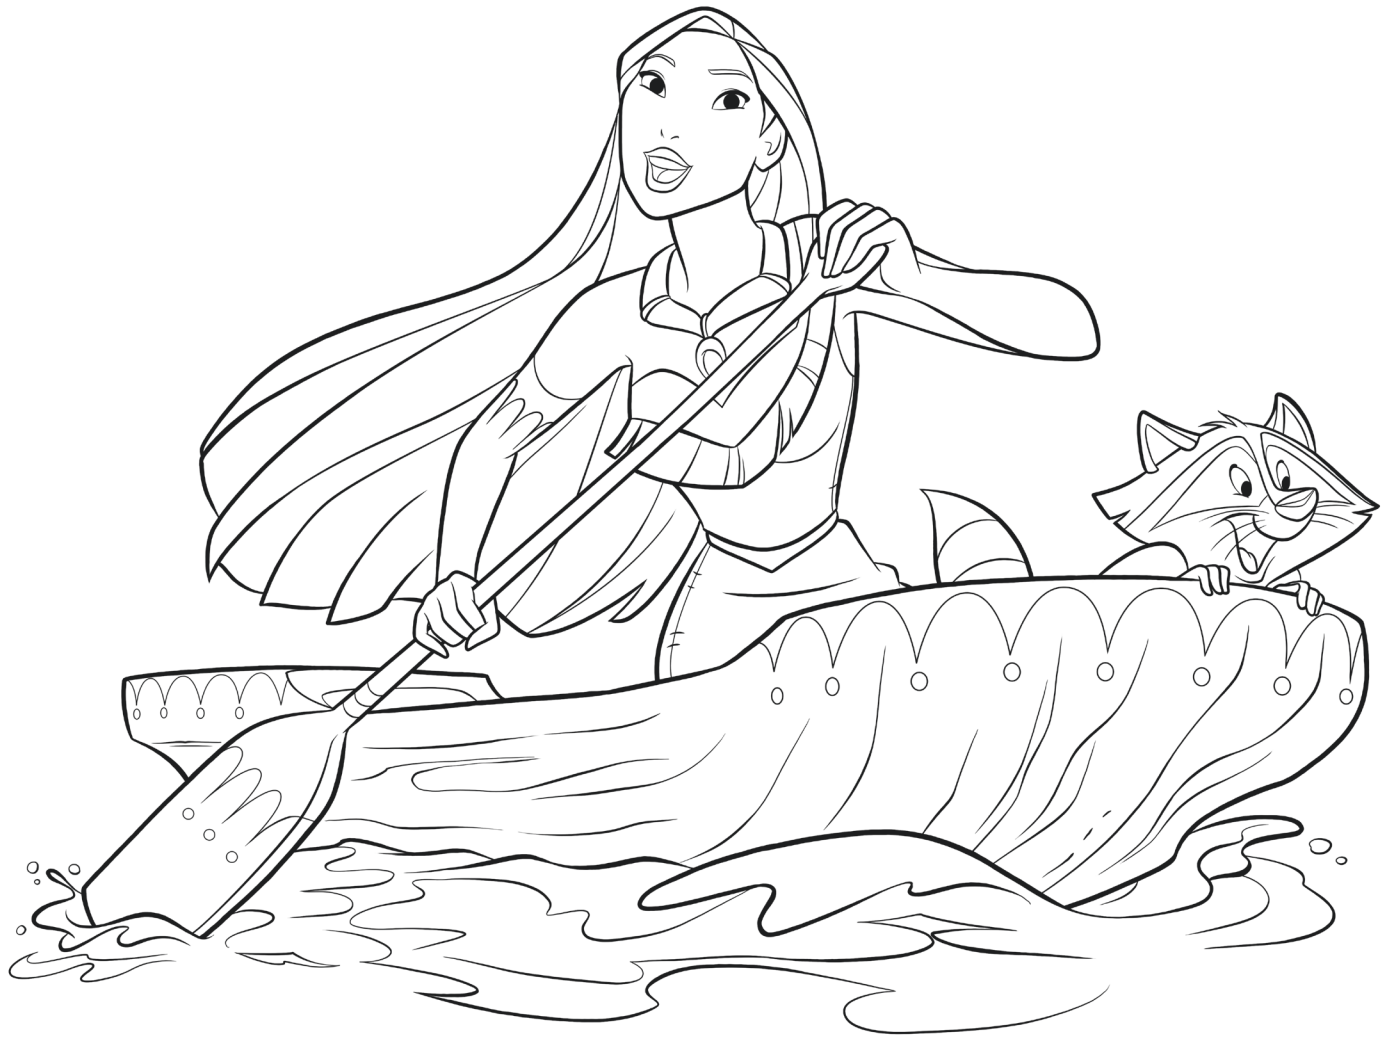

YOU SPARKLE

AND SHINE!

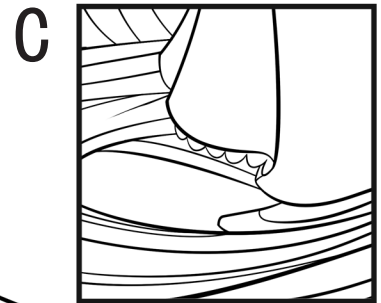

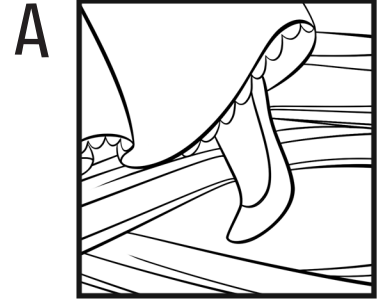

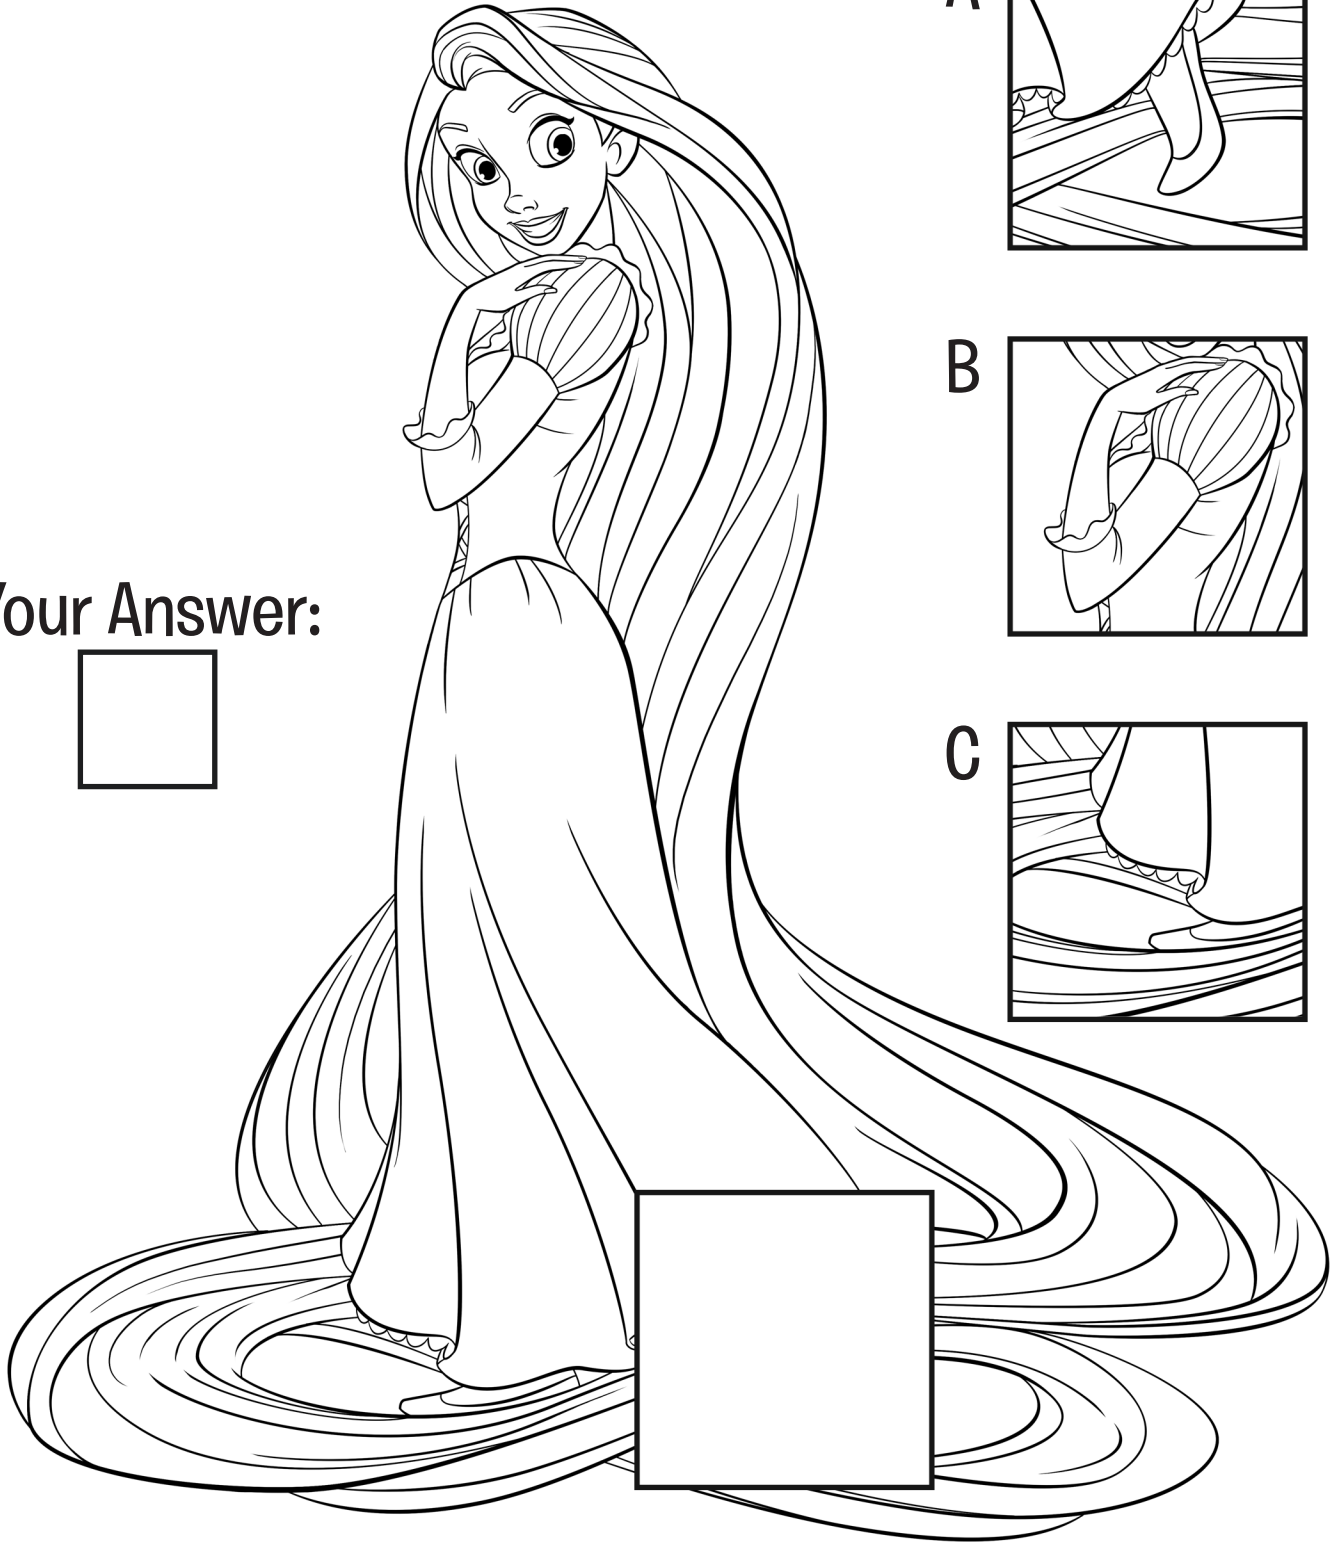

© Disney

Pocahontas has a strong heart.

Which piece completes the picture?

Your Answer:

Have courage and be kind.

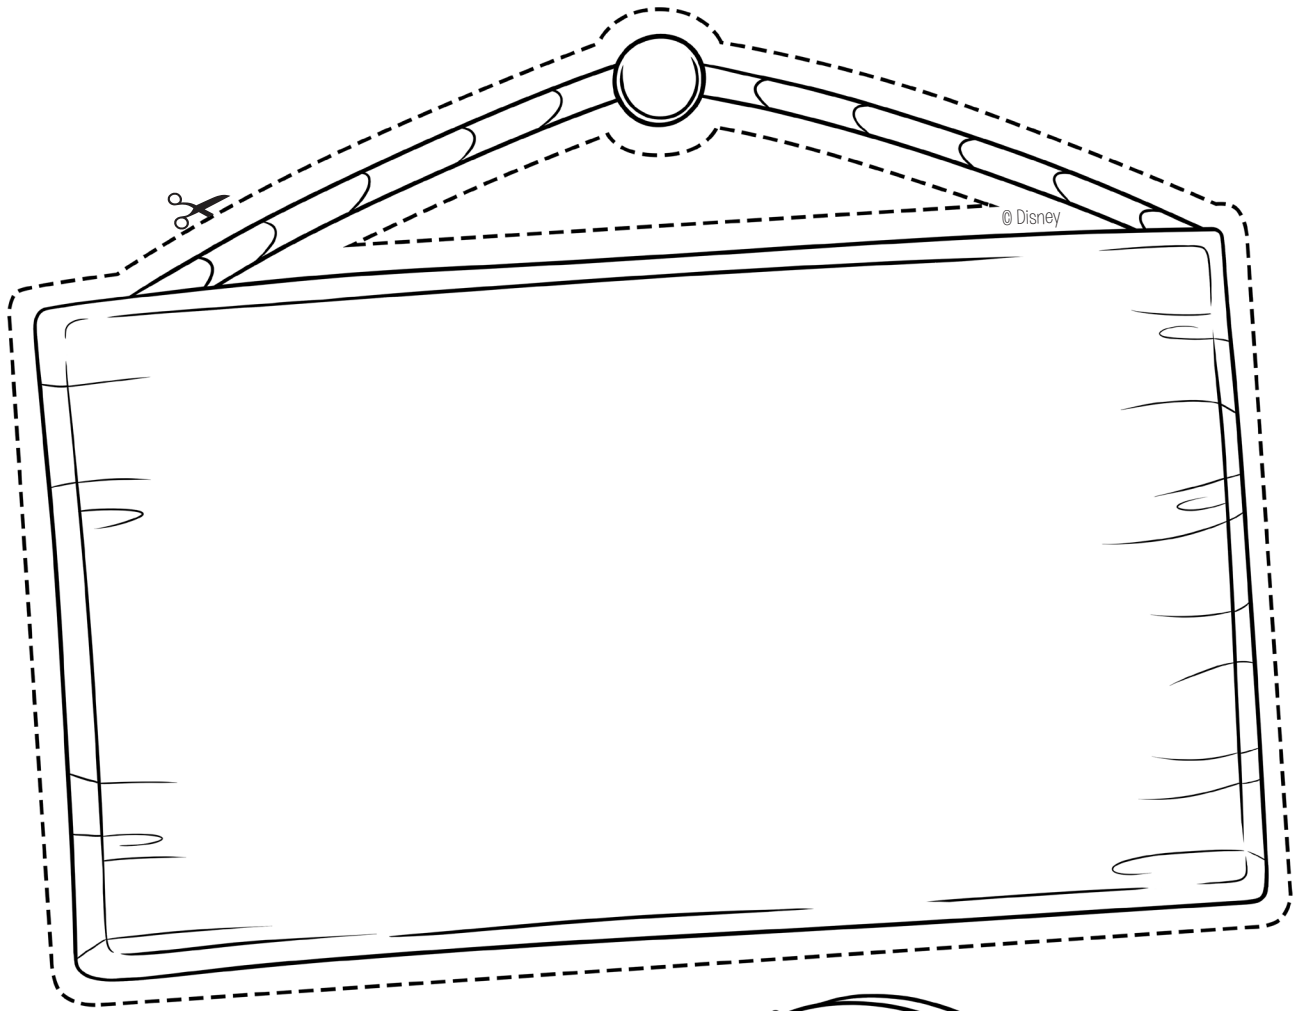

Let's Draw

Draw what you would wish for!

Draw and color your own doctor sign - and hang it on your door!

Connect the dots to find out what Doc is drawing.

Doc couldn't do her job without Hallie.

What toy would you take to school?
Draw it below!

MY TOY

A Bad Case of the Pricklethorns

No matter how hard anyone bopped Boppy the inflatable doll, he never stayed down. Donny's friend Will bopped Boppy. Boppy popped right back up. Doc bopped Boppy. Boppy popped right back up again.

"This time I'm going to do it!" Donny said. Donny took his hardest shot, but Boppy bopped right back up a third time.

Doc left the boys to play and headed off to her clinic. Soon she heard Donny calling from the yard.

"Doc!" Donny yelled. "Help!"

Doc rushed outside and found Boppy in Donny's arms.

"You have to save him!" Donny cried. "He's got a hole and he's losing air!"

Doc grabbed Boppy and rushed to the clinic.

"We have an emergency," Doc told Hallie.

Doc could hear the air escaping from Boppy.

There was a tiny hole in Boppy's plastic skin.

"Stuffy, I need you to put pressure right here!"

Doc said. Then she pulled a bandage from her pocket and placed it over the hole. The hissing stopped!

"I'll just pump you up and you should feel like your old self," Doc told Boppy.

Pump! Pump! Pump! Doc filled Boppy up with air. Now it was time for Boppy's checkup.

Doc listened to Boppy's heartbeat. He sounded as good as new, until the hissing noise started again. Boppy had sprung another leak! Doc patched Boppy up, but she knew her job wasn't finished.

"A doctor's job isn't just to help you after you're hurt," Doc explained. "It's also to help you not get hurt in the first place!"

After the toys explained how Donny had bopped Boppy, Doc realized that Boppy was bopped next to the rose garden. Boppy had a bad case of the Pricklethorns!

"You just have to stay away from thorns and sharp things," Doc told Boppy before she took him outside.

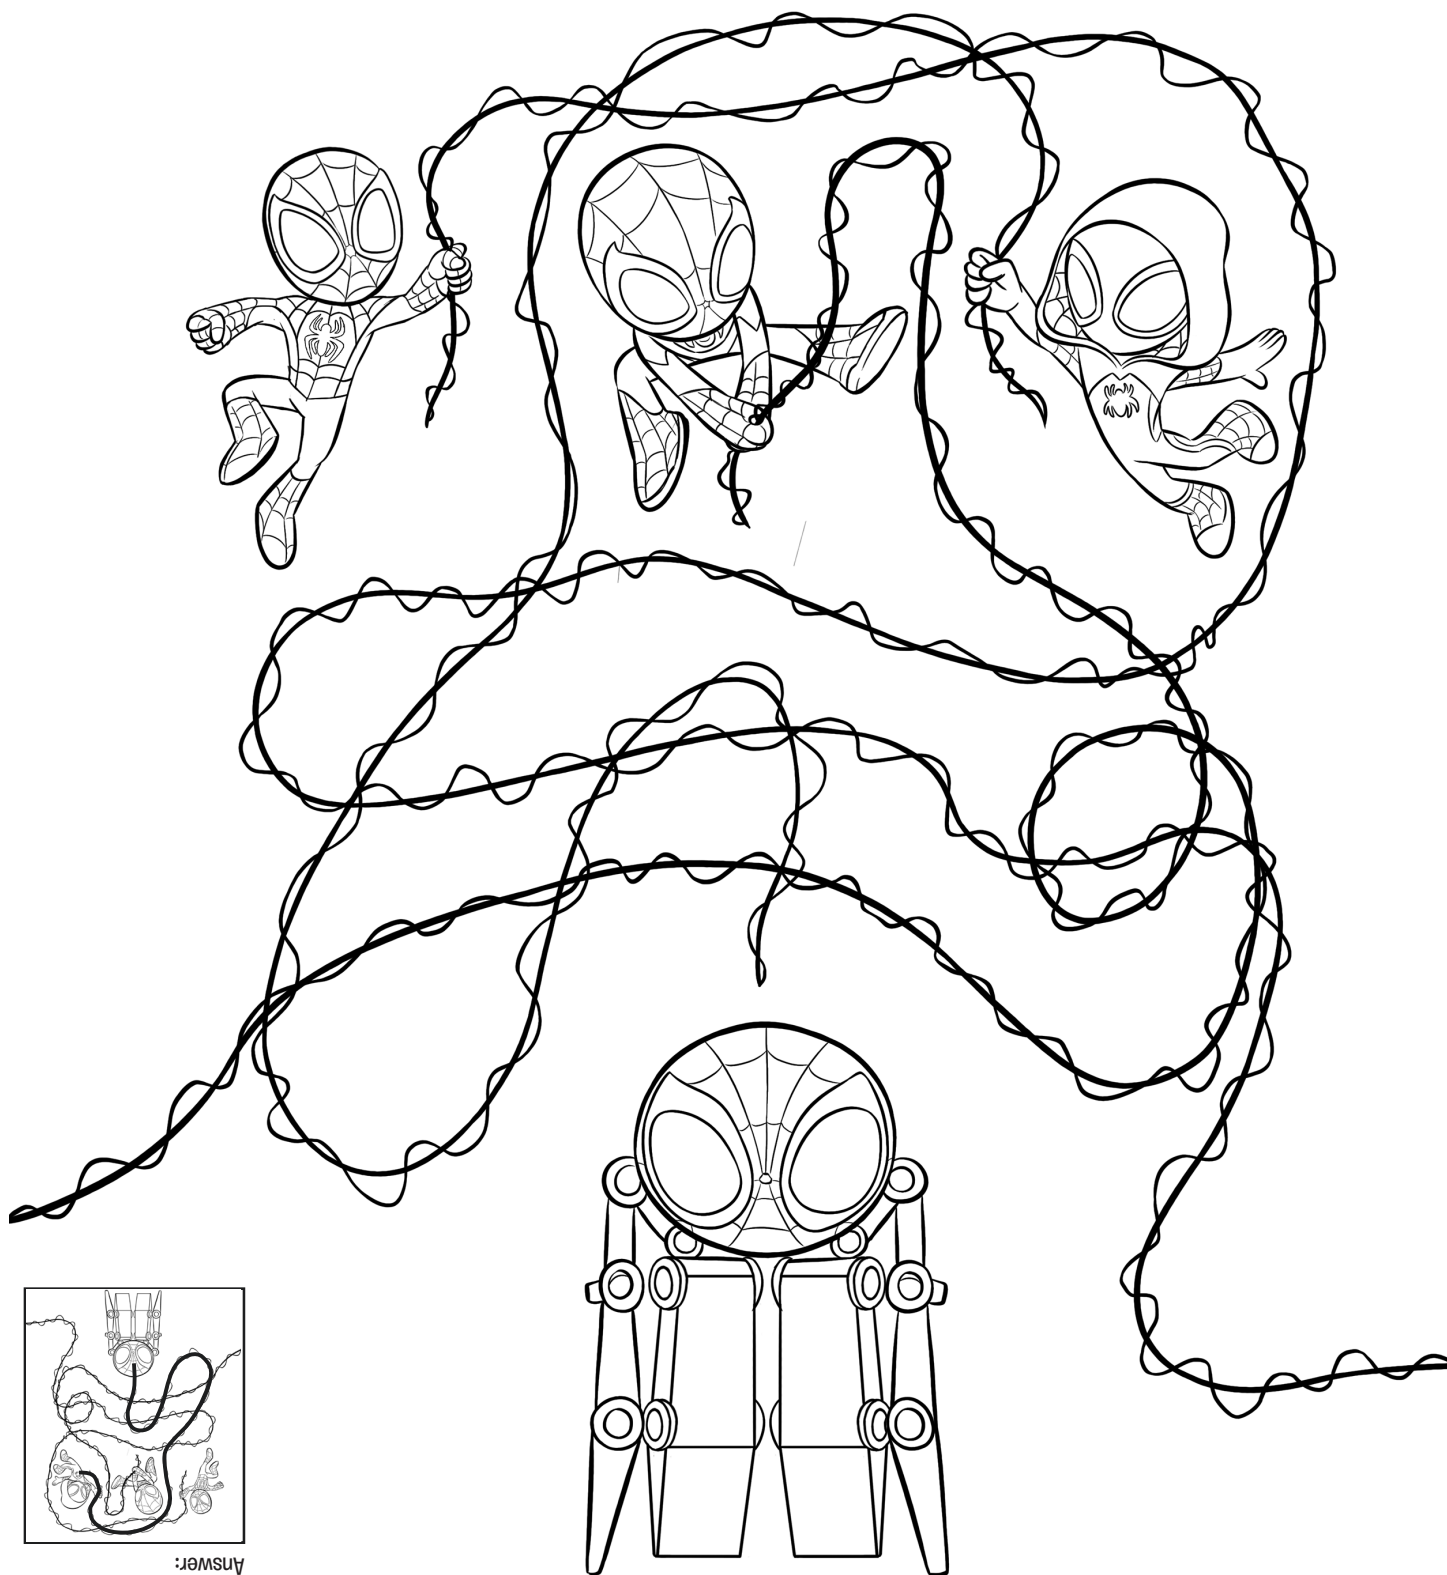

Donny and Will were happy to see Boppy back to his old bouncy self.

"You might want to play away from the rosebush," Doc said. "That's how he got his hole in the first place."

"Okay," Donny said. Then he smiled and bopped Boppy.

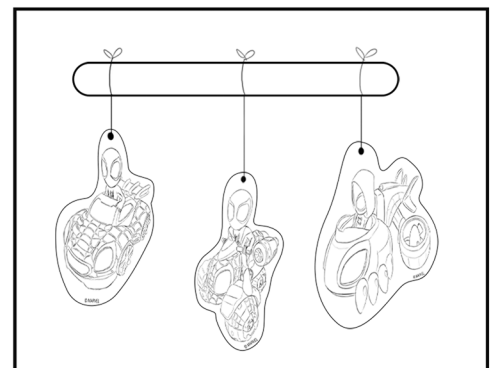

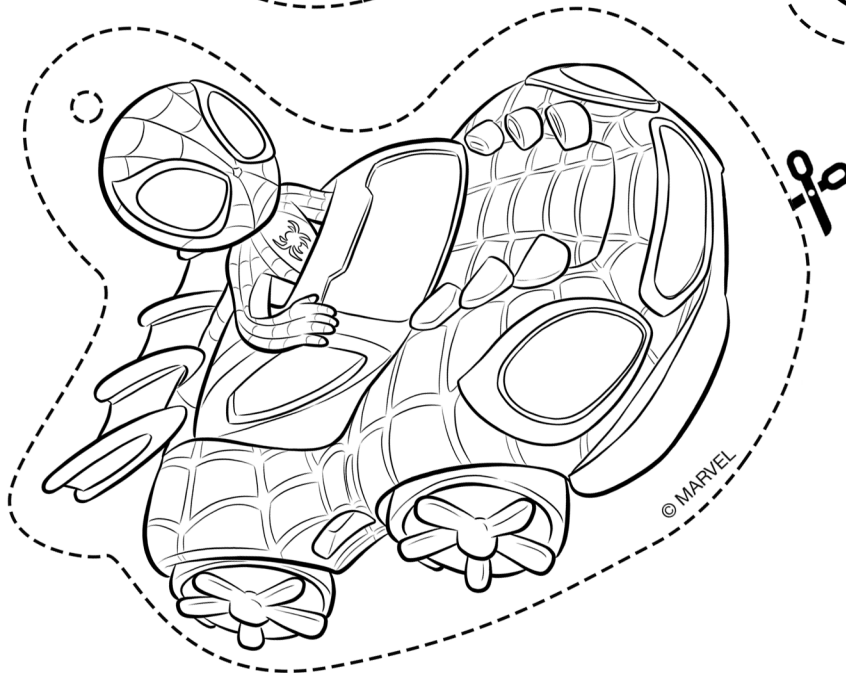

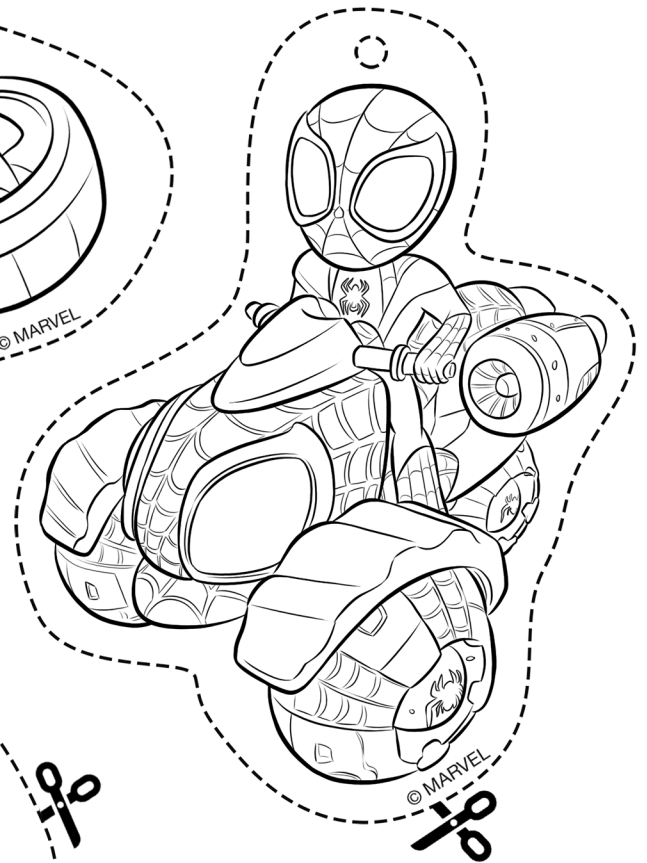

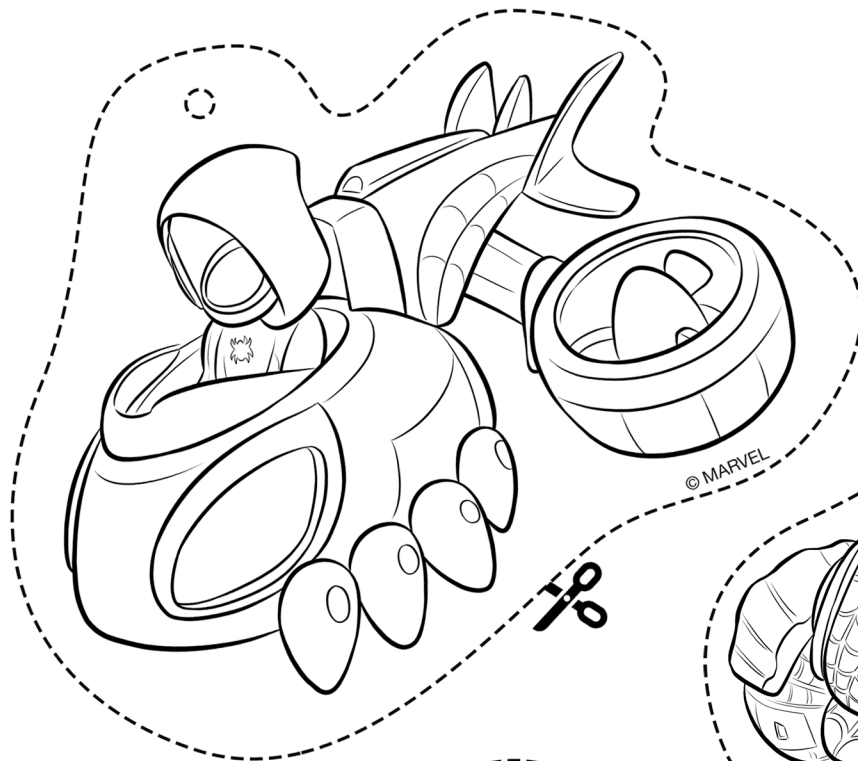

And guess what? Boppy popped . . . RIGHT . . . BACK . . . UP!

Help Team Spidey find the only path that leads straight to WEB-Quarters.

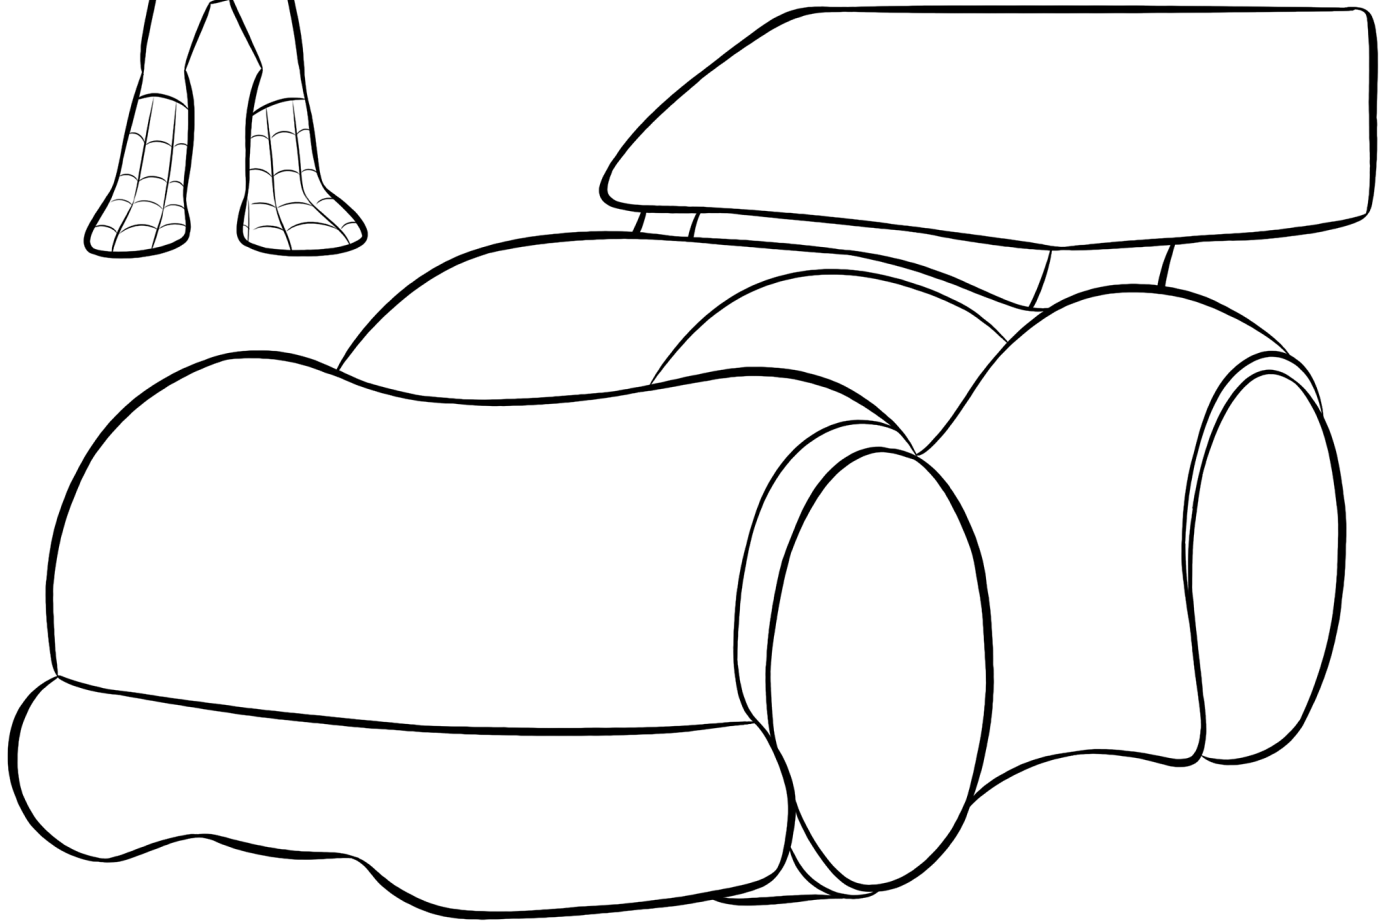

Make your own amazing spider mobiles!

Just color in the vehicles, and ask an adult for help cutting them out. Put a string through each hole, then tie them onto a popsicle stick.

Can you help TRACE-E design a cool new vehicle for Spidey?

Draw in your ideas below!

The Amulet of Avalor

Sofia couldn't wait for the royal ball! Her animal friends helped her get ready.

"What would I do without you?" she said with a smile.

Then King Roland arrived. He had a special surprise for Sofia and Amber. He took them to the Jewel Room to choose something special to wear to the ball.

"Thank you!" both princesses cried.

"What are those?" Sofia added, staring at the creatures perched atop the jewelry cases.

"Griffins are half eagle and half lion. They stay here in the Jewel Room," Roland explained. "They're perfect guards because they love anything shiny."

One of the griffins was a cute baby. Sofia patted him.

"Pretty jewel!" the griffin said when he saw Sofia's amulet.

Soon Amber had picked out a necklace. Sofia chose a sparkly bracelet.

When they left the Jewel Room, nobody noticed the griffin slipping out behind them. . . .

Back in Sofia's room, Amber had an idea. "Let's try on each other's new jewels."

Sofia didn't want to take off her amulet to try on Amber's necklace, but Amber talked her into it. It would only take a moment. . . .

While the girls were busy admiring their jewels, the baby griffin swooped in. He grabbed the shiny amulet and flew off.

When Sofia noticed her amulet was missing, she was horrified. There were strange claw marks on the table where it had been.

Amber rushed off to tell the guards. As soon as she was gone, Sofia's animal friends came out, but Sofia couldn't understand them. Without her amulet, she'd lost the power to talk to animals!

Sofia searched everywhere for the amulet. Meanwhile, more shiny things disappeared—golden goblets, a sparkly jewel, and even Queen Miranda's new tiara. Each time, the only clue was more claw marks.

Then Sofia noticed a feather and a tuft of fur and realized who the thief was—a griffin!

Soon Sofia had her amulet back, and the baby griffin was back in the jewel room, where he belonged. Sofia was glad she could talk to her animal friends again. She hoped that would never change. She really didn't know what she'd do without them!

Sofia and Clover have fun all year long.

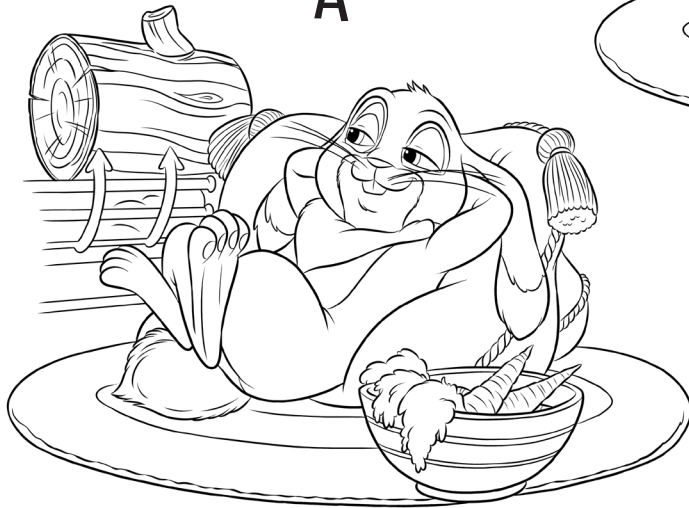

Find the picture that matches.

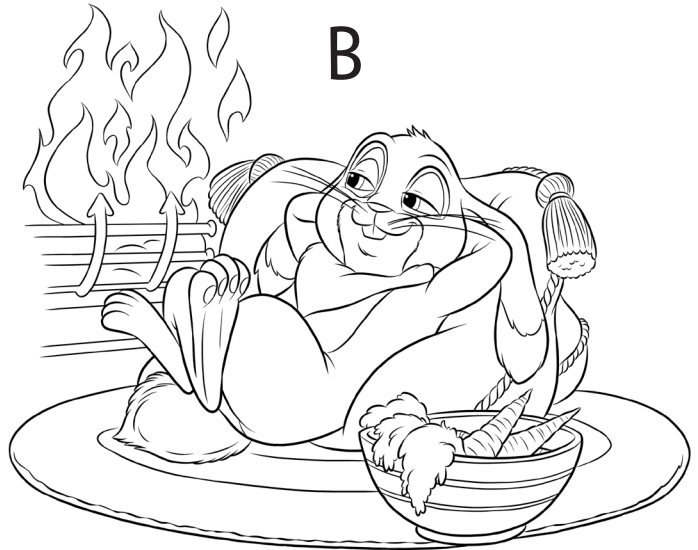

Original

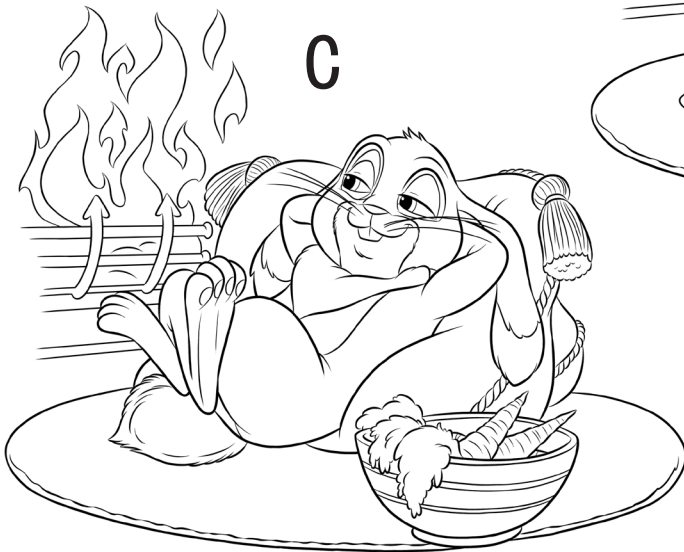

A

B

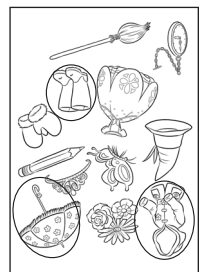

C

Your Answer:

Circle the things you need on a rainy day.

Answers:

Check Me-owt!

Mee-Wow!

Pawsitively Powerful!

The Purrfect Squad!

